2010 Innovative Couture Women's Apparel Collection by Sophie Rieu

Dear Eco Fashion Buyer,

Designer Sophie Rieu won Chic Eco's 2008 Best Eco-Creative Women's Fashion Designer Poll. She's been stocking her awarded label in selected boutiques throughout Ireland, in the UK, France, and Japan.

Chic Eco is proud to add representation to Ireland-based French designer Sophie's collections in North America. Buyers and consumers instantly know these garments are to love for a lifetime, with all the added advantages of ethical sourcing and production. Each item is elegantly understated, and flatters the female form with particular emphasis on detailing and finish.

The Spring/Summer 2010 collection is easy on the eye and easy to wear. All cotton is certified organic. The cotton jersey, the softest interlock knit, and cotton lining for Volta jacket is certified GOTS (Global Organic Textile Standard) and the Swiss wave pique is SKAL certified. All fabrics are azo-free, low-impact dyes.

All zips, ribbons and binding are tested and made in compliance with ÖKO environmental certification standards. The design facility is powered by wind energy with efforts to limit impacts on the Earth, both socially and environmentally.

Always feel free to ask about seasonal updates. This admired designer creates biannual designs. Retail samples with pre-approved return terms are available by request.

Environmentally yours,

Delia
